

DIFFERENT GAMES IS GOING TO THE 2016 GAME DEVELOPERS CONFERENCE

we need your support

This year Different Games Collective is honored to have been chosen to take part in the 2016 GDC Scholars Program alongside some of our favorite community based organizations from around the world.

help us get there

25 members of the Different Games community hope to attend GDC in San Francisco using the full passes gifted to us by GDC's generous scholarship program.

DIFFERENT GAMES COLLECTIVE

Creators of Different Games conference, our collective is grassroots, and all volunteer run. We strive to increase diverse participation in game development and game culture.

In just 2015 we served an audience of more than 500 through our annual conference in NYC, free workshop series in Atlanta, GA and events across the US

different games is growing

Since 2013 DGC has been producing free and low-cost community events to teach, support and highlight marginalized game designers, devs critics and scholars.
